

Killing Time is Now Here!

AND FOR

Lard Pounds,
Lard Kettles,
Sausage Mills,
Butcher Knives,
Skinning Knives,
Sticking Knives, Salt, &c., go to
W. S. ELLISON,
The Cash Dealer.

READ! READ! READ!

Arbitrator Flour, best on earth, $1.00 BBL.

Dinner Sets, any number of pieces,
China Fruit and Salad Sets,
Mustache Cup, Cane, Capp.,
Sauers and Plates, Individual Creams, 1
10 and 12 piece Chainette Sets,
Decorated Evens and Biscuit,
4 Piece Table Sets, Wine and Water Sets.

3 lbs. Best Stick Candy, 25¢
3 lbs. Fancy Mixed Candy, 25¢
Choice Florida Oranges 25¢ per Dozen.

Alfred McDaniels.

Hallroad Time Table.
Mr. C. & H. R. H. ARTHUR,
125 Main Street, HICKMAN, KY.
TICKET OFFICE, 125 Main Street, HICKMAN, KY.
The L. & N. R. R. at Maysville going north, and via N. M. & V. to Paducah, KY.
The L. & N. R. R. to the New Haven station going south.

WILSON'S BOOK STORE.

LOCAL NEWS.

It is now wise to buy a coat
In winter, spring
And fall;
Buy winter yet
And spring yet,
Who never let up
At all.

The wheat crop looks promising.

Soon be time to talk primary elections.

Circuit court is to session this week.

BALZER & SHAW.

Mr. Fred Eason has been elected Marshal of Fulton.

Volunteers should keep an eye on the movement of the COURIER.

Notching Nighth Alarm Clock at Harry's for $1.00.

Our terms for annuements for county candidates are 65 in advance.

Mr. Jas. J. Gourley, until recently connected with the Tribune, Marion, Tenn., was in the city this week.

March 1st at New Orleans, February 5th & 6th, will be celebrated in grand style than any previous year.

6.10

Days will understand worth $1.50 per cent at Sanders & Shaw's.

What I don't like about our schools, said the boy who had been educated, is that they run too much physical culture.

The only enemy of Painters has been the urbanites, all persons between the ages of four and twenty years to be vaccinated.

Big has been introduced in the Legislature imposing a fine of from $100 to $500 on a practicing physician convicted of being intoxicated.

CANCELLATION.

A solid Oak, 8 day Clock for $200.00.

Rev. J. H. Witt has been appointed by Presiding Elder Harris to take charge of the M. E. Church at Troy, Maysville, by the deacons of that church as an assured fact.

Practical steamboaters say they have never seen a winter like the present one. An average day in the month of January leaves Cairo in the south of January for St. Louis never made a clear round trip has been known, it all goes fast in dry weather.

At Wickliffe, Ky., last week, a continuance of the case of Obey, Hines and Breckinridge for train robbery continued, those against O'Day and Breckinridge by the defense, and Brown, who will be used as a witness by the prosecution, by the State.

Mr. J. H. Morris was elected Mayor of Union City last week, defeating his opponent, Mr. W. H. Gardner, by 7 votes. He beat in his election.

The weather says that the average cost of living is $5.00 a year, and that the expense of keeping up her bridges costs from $600 to $1,000.

25 Cents.

Ladies' Barber Divisions, at

BALZER & SHAW.

Mr. J. W. Morris and Miss Anna Gandy were married in Memphis last week. The bride well known to many of our citizens, and the groom a young lawyer.

Dr. W. T. Harris, D. D., will preach at the Methodist Church next Sunday, morning and night. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 10 A. M. and the Annual Conference Sabbath night.

Abu Livingston, who killed Ed. Elliot in Paducah recently, was indicted last week, charged with the murder of his wife. The bill was on a $10,000 bond, but was again ordered into the custody of the Justice.

The commission of the postmaster at Fulton, Clinton and Princeton expired this week, and it is to be filled from Washington by the President. William J. B. Graham at Clinton and Jack Riley at Princeton say that the appointment at Fulton will not be made for several days yet.

For some in the cloth there is nothing better than a denim cloth saturated with casein, which is a protein and turns over the casein plus, for one by T. T. Swaine, Douglass.

We are very anxious of our customers to the advertisement of the Provident Savings Life Assurance Society, of New York, to be found in this issue. Morris Johnson, of Paducah, is one of the agents for this county. If you contemplated taking out a life policy, then it fail to see them. Mr. Johnson is now in the city.

The young people of the Montgomery, Fulton, and Union neighborhoods enjoyed a delightful evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Clark on Friday last. A number of young people from Hickman were present, and they enjoyed a very royal time. No particular expense was made by the hostess to make the young folks enjoy themselves.

Mr. H. H. Hulman now offers all winter clothes for the next sixty days at a reduction. We would advise our friends to take advantage of this big cut in prices to get a good suit. Want to have a change always do what he promises to do, and you can get the goods at actual cost.

Mr. Chas. K. Kingman, of Louisville, Ky., has brought his family to Hickman, and is occupying the upstairs at his house.

Will buy at Sanders & Shaw's a suit of heavy Wool Underwear worth $1.50.

When the wise merchant is asked how he finds business he invariably replies that he advertises for it.

Judge D. G. Park of Graves county, who is a member of the court of this county, Monday evening in the interest of his candidacy for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Col. Henry H. Huston, of Paducah, Ky., was severely injured in a railroad track on the Falls of Rough Railroad, at Whiteville, Ky., Tuesday last.

The Provident Savings has the following average mortality of all the life companies in existence.

Also, the smallest rates of expense to business.

After a long and hard winter, the grocery merchant has put away Mr. P. E. Case's stock of groceries, &c., and will in the future always be there when we are there. We will be pleased to see our friends and customers.

It is a pretty size and a pound foolish place, after advertising just about the same price as elsewhere, to advertise. If trade or work is slack, for it is then the people should learn how to get their money's worth.

All parties interested in H. J. Justman are hereby notified to meet at their home at noon, and I expect him to be here on the 1st of January. A list to his wife is sufficient.

H. RICHARDSON.

The May 1st, 1890, issue of the Postmaster appointed the Incumbent's term is about out. The store is now run by Mr. McComb, a son of Mr. McComb, who has now been married to Mrs. McComb, a sister of Mr. McComb. Mr. McComb is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

Mr. McComb is a good man, and has a good business, and I expect him to be here on the 1st of January. A list to his wife is sufficient.

—The News Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually open and bright, his hair is grey, he is the best preserved 50 years old man we ever saw.

—The Courier Journal speaks of one of the best known physicians in the state of Fulton county, Mr. W. H. McComb, aged 58, who now lives near Paducah but formerly lived in Louisville, Ky., and died Monday, May 1st, 1890. His wife, Mrs. McComb, is now a man who is not very good, his skin not wrinkled and wrinkled, his eye is actually

The Only Way

The Care Cures! In the head is to remove from the blood the impurities which cause and feed it. This can be done by using Hood's Swamp Root, a great medicine which effectively expels all traces of poison and cures of disease and permanently cures Cancers.

This is Not Theory, but simple fact, and the most effective medicine as a remedy for Cancers is to cure the many people who have it, cure it, and let a man run out prominently. Remained.

Hood's Swamp Cures

Hood's Balsam can cure all constitutional diseases, just as our heads indicate.

TWO REASONS WHY

I Recommend Swamp Root, The Great Kidney and Liver Remedy.

BOSTON, MASS.—August 10, 1895.—Dr. Kline's, 101, Roxbury, N. Y.—Gentlemen—In all my practice of medicine, I have found no drug more effective in the treatment of the kidney and liver than Swamp Root. I have used it for many years. It is the greatest medicine I have ever used. I have sold it a great deal of it to patients for the past many years. I know it is a great medicine. I have sold it to many. Almost every day I have some one of my patients come to me.

Swamp-Root Cured Me

and telling what it has done for them. One thing that this treatment can cure, I will surely mention.

A. G. Veeches, New York.

Dr. Kline's, 101, Roxbury, N. Y.

Dr. Kline's, 101, Roxbury